

New Wines for the Summer

Cirro Sauvignon Blanc from the Wairau and Cowslip Valleys in Marlborough, NZ.

Fresh, lively and captivating, elegant and sublime with summer salads and, chicken, fish or just chilled on its' own watching the sun go down or the river go by..... with some light snacks and antipasti, delicious. There could not be a more perfect partner to a glorious summer's day of cricket by the river

cirro

Winemakers David Tyney work with, have crafted a beautiful Marlborough tropical fruits, with flavours fresh finish.

and Richard Green and the four small family growers they wine that captures and expresses, everything that these Valleys can produce, enticing aromas of citrus and on the palate to match, with a lingering and deliciously

Don Cristobal sell this lovely, vineyards 1000 metres, the vines and grapes benefitting from cooling airs, reflected in the Malbec Rosé - We are excited to be the first in London to elegant Rosé, made from the Malbec grape grown in within the Ugarteche Valley, Mendoza. Grown at nearly freshness of the wine.

Dry, elegant and fresh, with appealing red summer fruits and cherries on the nose and palate.

Beautiful pale, salmon pink colour, this wine is perfect with many dishes, Mediterranean wraps, salads, as well a super aperitif, on its' own, the beautiful pale colour reflecting and catching the lights of the summer sun.....

Thyme at the Park
Rising Sun, 29 High Street, Hampton Hill, TW12 1NB